Autumn Holiday in and around the Cotswold's

The first full day will be spent in Gloucester for an included tour of the Cathedral followed by free time to explore the city and its historic Docks, an optional tour of the historic Docks can be arranged.

On day two we plan to stop at Chipping Campden with time to explore this quintessential small Cotswold town followed by a visit to nearby Hidcote with its renowned Arts and Crafts inspired gardens. Laid out as a series of rooms with colorful displays whatever the time of year.

On the final day we will take you to Chedworth Roman Villa with its mosaic floors and other roman finds, followed by time in Cirencester for a chance to discover this delightful and historic Cotswold town with its 'wool church' and museum with more Roman displays.

Hatton Court Hotel, Upton St Leonards, GL4 8DE on the edge of Gloucester, will be the base for the holiday, for 4 nights half board accommodation, with full English breakfast and a three-course dinner taken in a private dining room. All rooms are ensuite and situated on the first floor. Please note you will need to negotiate stairs, some of which are external as there is no lift, help will be given with luggage.

All travel during the holiday will be by coach, included in the price. Car parking available at the hotel.
